

Ontario Prader-Willi Syndrome Association

Ontario's resource for PWS families, medical professionals, caregivers and educators

About OPWSA

The Ontario Prader-Willi Syndrome Association (OPWSA) is a non-profit charity founded in 1982 by parents who wanted to support families living with PWS. OPWSA is supported entirely by a community of donors and sponsors.

OPWSA Supports for the PWS Community

- Provide crisis counseling through our Executive Director and amazing network of families
- Advocate on behalf of the PWS community
- Provide free fridge locks to our Ontario members
- Host Fall Conference for families and caregivers
- Ensure that Ontario families have access to a PWS Clinic and educational resources
- Host family gatherings throughout the province to provide families and caregivers an opportunity to connect and share experiences with PWS
- Organize a week of camp for teenagers and adults with PWS at Shadow Lake Centre with a portion of the fees subsidized for each camper
- Hold a Family Fun Day for families with younger children with PWS
- Loan trikes to young children with PWS through our First Trike Program
- Communicate updates on upcoming events, and the latest research through our monthly newsletter
