

The DAGSY Clinic at SickKids

Leanne Ristic

- What is the Developmental Assessment of Genetically Susceptible Youth (DAGSY) clinic
- Purpose of a visit
- What a visit entails
 - Intake appointment – virtually
 - Clinic appointment – in person
 - Feedback appointment – virtually
- What does a family get from the clinic
- Strategies to use during assessments
 - Visual schedule
 - Token boards
 - Break cards

In person appointment

- Important documents to bring
 - Health card
 - Report card
 - Previous psychological reports
- DAGSY is located in the PGCRL Research Tower on Bay St.
- All patients do a developmental assessment, language assessment, academic assessment and a social communication assessment

Feedback Appointment

- Typically completed virtually
- Covers reasons for referral, developmental history, assessments completed with percentiles, new diagnosis and recommendations
- Parents receive a full psychiatric report